Participants: young, active people (18-25 years old) interested in the topic and working methods

Number of participants: 35 young people (7 persons from each country)

Participating countries: Lithuania, Greece, Bulgaria, Hungary, France

Working language: English

Short description:

During the youth exchange “Myths and legends across Europe” 35 participants from five different countries will explore the region of France called “Morvan” which is a rural area well known for its natural and historical patrimony. Music, theatre, painting and other workshops, interactive activities, such as debate or “Treasure hunt” will be used as tools to analyse differences and similarities between European cultures and the concept of European citizenship.

Main objectives of the project:

- To develop the promoters’ networks, encourage them to exchange good practices and various cultures.
- Foster interculturality, give city youth the opportunity to get to know and to give expression to a more traditional culture.
- During eight days the participants will have the opportunity to identify common values with other young people from different countries, in spite of their cultural differences.

Costs:   max 350-450 LT

Accommodation and food will be provided by organizers: Maison hotel: <http://www.maisondubeuvray.com/>
