“Human Rights Education in Youth Work”

JUDABERG, NORWAY
18th to 25th February, 2012

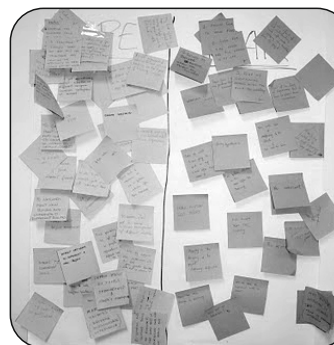

Project Description

“Human Rights Education in Youth Work” will bring together 24 participants from 6 countries (Norway, Lithuania, Germany, Portugal, Poland and Romania). The Training course aims to promote the social rights, human rights and solidarity through volunteering and active citizenship of the youngsters by providing them opportunity to express their view, related to using human rights education and educational approach. The training addresses the need of youth workers and youth leaders to be equipped with a new set of tools and methods to tackle social inclusion and human rights education, in order to integrate them into real work. It will also stimulate the use of the Youth in Action Programme as a tool to enhance the social inclusion, active citizenship and employability of young people with fewer opportunities and to contribute to social cohesion in general.

Main objectives:

- To equip the youth leaders and youth workers with new tools and methods on human rights education;
- To promote the Inclusion Strategy within the Youth in Action context;
- To provide the youth leaders, youth workers and project managers with the opportunity to share their experiences and their good practices working with youngsters with fewer opportunities and discriminated youth on human rights projects and initiatives;
- To provide the 24 participants the opportunity to work together with each other and organizations from 6 different European countries, in order to set up new projects on human rights education;
- To come up with new approach boost solidarity between youngsters with different social backgrounds and ensure sustainable development;
- To create an active network of multipliers on human rights education;
- To promote Human Rights and Human Rights Education through a set of methods and tools based on experiential learning;
