

The schedule for the youth exchange

During the 1st day:

- Welcoming the participants
- Games of knowing each other
- Expectations, concerns, contributions
- Presentation of the countries
- Presentation of the Youth in Action Programme and the participating associations
- Welcoming party, of getting to know each other

The objectives of the day will be: knowing the participants, the organizations and the countries that are involved in the project.

During the 2nd day:

- Energizing games
- Discovering the cultures and creating an European connection by creating a common story
- Ideas for the exhibition
- Realization of the portrait of the "Romanian/Turkish/Italian/Lithuanian"
- The costume parade

The objectives of the day will be: developing communication skills and creativity skills, knowledge of traditions and customs of the participating countries, the elimination of prejudices.

During the 3rd day:

- Stimulating creativity through non-formal games: caricature, masks
- Flash-mob choreography, an action plan in the community
- Forum theatre on art and popular culture
- Intercultural party

The objectives of the day will be: developing the creativity of the participants, knowledge of the other European cultures

During the 4th day:

- Non-formal games: the bunny, guess who I am, musical chairs, dancing among bottles
- Workshop of unconventional popular creation: hand-made, origami, painting on socks or rocks
- Debate about the ethnic groups from the country of origin
- Party with the theme of popular dance: improvisation, flash-mob ideas

The objectives of the day are going to be: developing the creativity, elimination of discriminatory attitudes.

During the 5th day:

- Outdoor games
- Flash-mob with the topic of cultural identity in the spirit of European citizenship in Targu Frumos

The objectives of the day will be: developing teamwork, enterprise skills, promoting the cultural diversity.

During the 6th day:

- Games: bowling, the countries, country-country soldiers want
- Preparing a final exhibition with a debate on: "How do I spend my free time? Voluntary or not?"

The objectives of the day will be: developing communication abilities, teamwork, public speaking, promoting volunteering and cultural diversity.

During the 7th day:

- Closing event: parade in the community
- Evaluation of the exchange and follow-up
- Party

☺ We wait your feedback... we can improve this schedule!